House rules Basketball Nederland – Netherlands vs Israel

The rules below apply to all visitors during the international match between the Netherlands and Israel on November 27, 2026. We ask you to adhere to these rules. Visitors to the match are obliged to follow instructions given by staff working from the organization of the Netherlands Basketball Association or the relevant location.

1. General smoking ban

   There is a general smoking ban on the site. Smoking is prohibited both inside the entire complex (sports halls, changing rooms, public areas), and outside in the entrance area.

2. Ticket and visitor control

   Every visitor is required to be able to show a ticket at the ticket control (also applies to parents in the case of children). This can be done both digitally and via a printed ticket. Visitors are let in one by one, after scanning the tickets. All visitors will be briefly searched by the security present for checking.

3. Prohibited items

   It is not allowed to bring the following items inside:

   1. clothing with political statements
   2. own consumptions;
   3. pets;
   4. bottles, cans, glassware;
   5. fireworks, flares;
   6. horns;
   7. megaphones or similar devices with amplified sound;
   8. confetti, serpentine;
   9. lasers;
   10. hockey sticks, tennis rackets and other types of sticks;
   11. alcohol and/or narcotics (all types of hard and soft drugs);
   12. banners;
   13. Country flags, also not of both participating countries;
   14. objects that may pose a safety hazard.

   Other items taken are at the discretion of the security present and/or the Dutch Basketball Association.

4. Bag check/right of search

   It is not allowed to bring bags into Sportcampus Zuiderpark. Exceptions are handbags and bags with medical devices. Security is entitled to inspect these bags (to check your bag), every visitor must cooperate with this.

5. Excessive Behavior

   Excessive behavior, whether or not caused by excessive drinking, including shouting insulting or discriminatory texts or otherwise (at the discretion of our security and/or organization), and/or not following instructions and house rules can lead to removal from the venue and a ban from upcoming events. The damage and any fine imposed by FIBA will be for the perpetrators.

6. Entering the court

   It is strictly forbidden to enter the court before, during and after the match without permission from the organization. Furthermore, it is not allowed to enter the court in high heels due to the possible risk of damage to the floor. Entering the court without permission from the organization can lead to the referees stopping the match. Any damages and a fine imposed by FIBA will be for the perpetrators.

7. Don't throw stuff on the court

   This can lead to the referee stopping the match and expulsion from the venue. The damage and any fine imposed by FIBA will be for from the perpetrators.

8. Children

   Before, during and after the matches, parents/guardians remain responsible for their children. In case of damage caused by the children, this will be recovered from the parents/guardians.

9. Follow instructions

   In general, any evacuation of the hall will take place on the instructions of and guidance by the organization of the Netherlands Basketball Association and the staff of the venue, security and/or stewards. These, and other, instructions must be followed by all visitors.

10. Theft

    Basketball Nederland is not liable for theft.

11. Recordings

    The making of professional image and/or sound recordings for radio, television, internet and/or mobile applications in any form is only permitted after prior written permission from the organization.

12. Live music

    It is not allowed to play musical instruments in the hall without the permission of the organization, this request must be submitted to the NBB at least three days prior to the competition. Visitors who have been given permission to attend with musical instruments (such as drums) must buy a ticket for one of the short sides (end side) of the stands.

13. Privacy

    The privacy statement (https://www.basketball.nl/privacy) applies to everyone who has contact with the organization and/or leaves (personal) data that is processed. The privacy statement states the rights and obligations of the General Data Protection Regulation with regard to the processing of personal data and its registration. In addition to the privacy statement, the following applies to the events of the Dutch Basketball Association. Because the matches are public, it is possible that during those matches photos, images and/or (video or TV or radio) recordings are made in which you can be seen. This also falls under the processing of personal data. The photos, images and/or recordings can be published or broadcast in the hall where the match is played (screen) or on various (social) media. The Dutch Basketball Association has a legitimate interest in processing this personal data and by visiting the match you are aware of this.

Violation of the house rules can lead to eviction and a visiting ban for a definite or indefinite period of time.
